

Sunday Advertiser

Entered at the Postoffice in Honolulu, H. T., as second-class matter.)

Published Every Sunday Morning.

by the HAWAIIAN GAZETTE Co., Ltd.
Von Holt Block, 65 South King St.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:
Delivered by carrier in city, per month,$.25
Mailed to any address for 1 year in the United States or Territory of Hawaii$3.00

BUSINESS LOCALS.

At a materials at Arleigh's.
Your grocer sells Poi Breakfast Food.
Your grocer sells Poi Breakfast Food.
$1 quality plaid silks for 85c. at Sachs.
Sweet lingerie waists, just opened, at Sachs.
See Fisher's auction column for Wednesday's sale.
A first-class cow is for sale at the Sailors' Home.
See Ehlers' ad at the foot of society page. It's worth looking into.
First ready for 1907. Hand-tinted Hawaiian calendars at Arleigh's.
Island turkeys, chickens and frog legs at Royal Annex Cafe. Dinner 5 to 7.
Breakfast at Royal Annex Cafe, Merchant and Nuuanu. Dainty and clean.
Meet your friends at Royal Annex Cafe, Merchant and Nuuanu. Lunch 25c.
A plasterer is wanted. See classified advertisements.
A party advertises in today's classified ads for a furnished cottage.
Cravenette coats in tan, olive and Oxford, special at Sachs, $8.00 each.
A private teacher is wanted by adult pupil. See our want ads for particulars.
Mrs. Taylor, the florist, is in receipt of a fresh supply of flower seeds by the Alameda.
See illustration in Bergstrom Music Company's ad of Victor talking machines for $12.50. You ought to have a Victor.
Rice & Perkins have entirely renovated their downstairs office and have a very artistic exhibit of up-to-date portraiture.
A modern cottage, furnished, is offered for rent. Also two one-room cottages and single rooms. See classified advertisements.
What more delightful treat can you give evening callers than fountain sodas and ginger ale? R. Rycroft, proprietor. Phone, Main 270.
Dr. E. E. McLean's Golden Seal for oily hair is for sale only at Mrs. Doris E. Paris' manicuring parlors at 1156 Fort street, opposite the convent.
A house and lot in Manoa Valley, suitable for small family, is offered for sale by Henry Waterhouse Trust Co. Good neighborhood and fine view.
Call at Morgan's auction rooms and get one of his neat books on Hawaiian securities. Same contains full information regarding sugar properties.
The Gurney refrigerator, with its removable ice compartment, still holds the lead of all other refrigerators. W. W. Dimond & Co., Ltd., are sole agents.
The General Arthur cigar represents the greatest achievement of American cigar makers. It is unqualifiedly the best cigar in the world. Gunst-Eakin Cigar Co., Inc., distributors.
A. Blom will sell staple cottons for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at cost and less than cost prices. See ad on another page and note the reductions. For three days only.
Ahana, the King street tailor, has just received some of the latest patterns in suitings and trouserings which will be made up to order in the latest style and with fit guaranteed.
Mrs. Hodson, of many years' experience as a teacher of piano and singing in the Colonies and Europe, will give lessons to pupils at their homes if so desired. Her studio is at 213 Vineyard street, near Emma.
Some new and artistic pieces of Teco pottery. Brasses and high marked tapa cloths. Let us put aside a few things for you before the holiday rush. Hawaii & South Seas Curio Co., Young buildings. Fans and baskets.
A case of delicious island preserves makes a nice present to send to your folks at home for a Thanksgiving present. Send a case by the S. S. Alameda, leaving here next Wednesday. Order by phone, Blue 1411.
Sachs' annual Thanksgiving sale of table linens, napkins and table sets begins tomorrow morning and affords an exceptional opportunity to replenish your table linens at considerably less than regular prices. See ad on page 2.
The iron from which Garland stoves and ranges are made is mixed with aluminum, giving them superior fineness, strength and toughness and making them less likely to rust. E. O. Hall & Son carry twenty-five different styles of Garland stoves.
J. M. Levy & Co. have secured the sole agency of Roncovieri's celebrated chocolate candies. These are enjoying a wonderful popularity on the Pacific coast and are one of the surprises of reconstruction. The shipment just arrived is their first appearance in Honolulu.
Hudnut's exquisite perfumes and toilet accessories at New York prices. Just the same price you would pay on Fifth avenue. Lewis & Co., Ltd., are the sole agents for Hawaii for these aids to beauty. Telephone Main 240. 169 King street. These famous perfumes are unrivaled.
Long black and white silk gloves, all sizes, at Sachs.
"What I regard as most conspicuous about Georgie Grayson," said Mrs. Oldcastle, "is her naivete." "Yes," replied her hostess, "I wonder what made her get a red one?"—Baltimore American.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Col. Z. S. Spalding arrived from Kauai yesterday.
United States Deputy Marshal Winter returned from Hawaii yesterday.
Charles K. Noley, who also ran for Delegate to Congress, returned from Hawaii yesterday.
Father Clement will hold services at Kalihiwaena at 8:30 a. m. and 4 p. m. and at Kalihihaka at 11 a. m. today.
Rev. J. A. Roth took thirty boys of the Palama Settlement to Pearl City peninsula for an outing yesterday.
From Monday to Thursday, inclusive, the tax office will be open from 8 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. for the receipt of taxes.
Aino Yoshida, awaiting trial in the Federal Court for conspiracy, was released yesterday under a bond of $1000.
The Democratic rally in celebration of victories in the late election will be held at Aala Park tomorrow evening.
Pastor Feimly will hold preaching services at the German Lutheran Church at 11 a. m. Sunday school at 9:40.
The public meeting on the Lanai exchange question will be held at the executive rooms at 3:30 tomorrow afternoon.
James L. Holt, president of the St. Louis College Alumni Association, denies that the association has taken any part in politics.
A trust company made an incorrect addition and thereupon sent a check to the tax office for $50.30 less than was required to pay its income tax.
All members of the Hui Kaahumanu are requested to attend the funeral of their late sister, Mrs. Esther Kanae, at her late residence, Palama, King street, today at 4 p. m.
Besides the relatives mentioned in the obituary of Mrs. C. C. Kennedy yesterday, the deceased was a sister of Mrs. J. C. Axtell, of Honolulu, and Mrs. Ketcham, of New York.
The golf links at Haleiwa are but one of the attractions at Haleiwa. The others will be found when the guest settles down for a snooze or opens up a desire for a plunge or a game of tennis.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elston returned to Honolulu on the Alameda on Friday. Both were benefited in health by the change to the mainland. Mrs. Hart also returned with her daughter.
Miss Grace Hortense Tower, who remained over from the Southern California editorial excursion and has been doing local newspaper work, leaves in the Alameda to return to Los Angeles.
A meeting of the Hui Kaahumanu is called for Monday, Nov. 12, at 10 a. m., for the purpose of devising means for the relief of the Hawaiian band. All members are urgently requested to be present.
No property on which to levy for satisfying an execution on a judgment for $1826.28, in the suit of H. Hackfeld & Co., Ltd., vs. J. D. Lewis, was found in Hilo by High Sheriff Wm. Henry. He has levied on property of the defendant at Waikiki.
It is a matter to regret that the Hilo Tribune should pass out of the hands of so gentlemanly a management as that of D. W. and J. W. Marsh. Under them the Tribune was the best Hilo paper. Its tone was always high and its character above reproach.
Joe Everett, who has acknowledged that he climbed in over the transom of the Fashion saloon and helped himself to the contents of the cash register and as much of the wet goods as he could conveniently handle, was yesterday committed for trial at the Circuit Court.
Louis Hickey, who sailed to the Coast and back on the Alameda as a stowaway, and who was welcomed on his return by a big cop, was yesterday sent to the Industrial School, there to remain until he has reached years of discretion. Master Hickey made his trip under an alias.
Rev. W. A. Poole, of Berkeley, Cal., will preach both morning and evening in the Methodist Church. Subject for morning: "The Illumination of a Supreme Principle." Evening: "The Magnetic Christ." Mrs. Poole will play one or two selections on the violin. Mrs. S. C. Damon will lead the Epworth League. Subject, "Forgiveness."

BORI.

BROWN—In Honolulu, November 10, 1906, to Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Brown, a son.

Classified Advertisements.WANTED.

PRIVATE teacher wanted by adult pupil. One and a half hours per day; five days per week. Address, stating terms, "X. Y. Z.", Advertiser office.

EXPERIENCED dry goods salesman. One who speaks Hawaiian preferred. R. F. Ehlers & Co. 755A

FURNISHED cottage, by couple; no children. Address, "F.", this office. 202

PLASTERER. Apply Thomas H. Brown, Queen Hotel. 202

FOR RENT.

MODERN cottage, furnished or unfurnished, close to center of town; also two one-room cottages, pleasantly located. Single rooms in two-story dwelling. All reasonable. Address, "G. W.", Advertiser office. 202

FOR TOURISTS. Two mosquito-proof house tents, furnished, Waikiki, near Moana Hotel. Fine bathing. J. Oswald Luttet, Phone 74. 7563

ROOM AND BOARD.

DESIRABLE room and board—mosquito-proof, running water, electric light, etc.—at 483 King street. 196

FOR SALE.

LADY'S saddle horse; very gentle. Inquire Veterinary Infirmary of A. R. Rowat, D. V. S., 777 King street.

FIRST-CLASS cow. Apply Sailors' Home. 202

Keep Your Eye on

HIGHLAND PARK

THE NEW

Subdivision

Adjoining beautiful COLLEGE HILLS on the Dimond Head side.

LOTS 70 x 200 feet

WILL BE SOLD FOR FROM

$500. to $800. Each

TERMS: $\frac{1}{4}$ Cash, $\frac{1}{4}$ in 8 Months, $\frac{1}{4}$ in 16 Months and $\frac{1}{4}$ in 2 Years at 6 per cent Interest.

Roads are Now in Course of Construction.

Water Pipes are Now Being Laid.

Superb Marine and Valley Views

Only One Short Block From the MANOA VALLEY CARS.

Further Information Will Be Given By

CHAS. S. DESKY

Telephone Main 480

Campbell Block

SOCIETY.

(Continued from Page Twelve.)
of the original Frawley company, and in past years her best success was as "Lady Gay Spanker" in London Assurance. She has been engaged by the terms of her contract to play the role of Mrs. Wiggs for the remainder of her theatrical career. She believes that she will play the part continually as did Joe Jefferson the role of Rip Winkle almost to the time of his death. "Mrs. Wiggs" is being presented here under the auspices of Lei Aloha Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star.
Captain and Mrs. Humphrey and infant sailed for the Coast on the transport Buford. They will proceed to Washington, where the captain's father, Quartermaster General Humphrey, is stationed. Captain Humphrey will have leave of absence for awhile in order to undergo hospital treatment. It is said he will be promoted.
Miss Adele de l'Artigue gave a pretty exhibition of dancing at the St. Clement's fair concert Friday evening. Mrs. Alexander Lindsay also appeared on the program as a vocalist.
Captain Heldt of the Camp McKinley battalion has succeeded Captain Humphrey as Depot Quartermaster and also of the army transport service here.
Among the guests at the Alexander Young Hotel is Mrs. Nettie R. Robeson, a well-known lady of Denver, Colorado, who purposes remaining in Honolulu for an indefinite period. Mrs. Robeson is here on the advice of her physician, being a sufferer from a slight bronchial affection, making it necessary that she spend the winter at least in a less rigorous climate than that of Colorado. Mrs. Robeson is a prominent member of the Order of the Eastern Star, being twice Past Worthy, Matron of the Chapter of Georgetown, Colorado. She is also a member of the Woman's Club of Denver, from which she has brought letters of introduction to several well-known Honoluluans. It is possible that, while in the Territory, Mrs. Robeson will make some investments here, intending to investigate one or two propositions made to her before leaving the mainland.

Bishop Restarick and Miss Constance Restarick have returned from Hawaii.

On Friday the British Consul received at the Consulate in honor of the birthday anniversary of King Edward VII. A large number of people called to pay their respects and pass a health to His Majesty.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Angus will shortly be at home in their new residence on Matlock avenue.

Dr. and Mrs. H. V. Murray entertained at dinner Tuesday for Mr. and Mrs. Buckley. The latter is a niece of Commander Hugh Rodman, U. S. N., formerly stationed here.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dutton, Mr. and Mrs. Ivers, Mr. and Mrs. Layard, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Macfarlane and Mr. Harry Whitney were among the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lanz Thursday evening.

PEARY'S SHIP, "THE ROOSEVELT."

"I thought," said Mrs. Oldcastle, "that you intended to have D'Auber, the great mural painter, do some work for you." "We did," replied her hostess, "but Josiah discharged him. He tried to cheat us by paintin' on the walls. I s'pose because he didn't want to spend any money for canvas."—Chicago Record-Herald.

The champion absent-minded man called upon his old friend, the family

READ THE ADVERTISER WORLD'S NEWS DAILY.